THE LENNANDER FOUNDATION

The Lennander Foundation hereby announces the following scholarships

4 scholarships of 255 000 SEK each and 6 scholarships of 180 000 SEK each

Scholarships are provided for young Swedish researchers at any of the country's universities and university colleges to support independent scientific and medical investigations and work that are promising from the standpoint of scientific/practical results. Applicants must be Swedish citizens. Funding can be awarded for living expenses and running costs. Priority is given to researchers who have just taken doctor's degree and lack funding and to those who are about to complete doctoral education.

In the web application there are instructions about required attachments.

All web applications must be sent in by Wednesday, 24th January 2018, before 5:00 p m. After the application deadline, no supplements or changes to the application can be done.
