Information - The Anders Jahre Awards for Medical Research for 2018

In October 2018 two medical prizes will be awarded:

I. The Anders Jahre Medical Prize for outstanding scientific activity or results within Nordic medicine. The prize amounts to NOK 1 000 000 (approximately €110 000).

II. The Anders Jahre Medical Prize to young medical investigators within the Nordic countries. The candidate must be below the age of 40 by June 15, 2018. The prize amounts to NOK 400 000 (approximately €40 000).

All professors of medicine serving in a Nordic country are invited to nominate potential awardees. Nominations must be in pdf and not exceed 3 MB. They must be mailed to the secretary of the prize committee, Anette Sørensen. Please use the e-mail address:

anette.sorensen@medisin.uio.no.

The nominations must be received before February 1, 2018.

In order to be processed each nomination should be accompanied by

- 1) a thorough explanation of the reason that the nominee should be considered for the prize
- 2) a publication list covering the last 5 years (limited to publications with the nominee as corresponding author), as well as a list of up to 20 selected publications.
- 3) a curriculum vitae

The submitted material shall be in English.

Nominations that have been submitted in previous years shall be submitted again in order to be processed, and shall follow this year's submission format. The prize committee especially asks for your help in nominating candidates for the young investigator award. The prize is an important recognition and incentive for active scientists.
